

FT. WAYNE MAN MEDICAL LEADER

Dr. G. W. McCaskey, President of Northern Tri-State Medical Association—Kalamazoo is Chosen.

G. W. McCaskey of Fort Wayne was elected president of the Northern Tri-State Medical Association at the afternoon session of the 46th annual meeting held Tuesday at the Oliver hotel. The other officers chosen were T. F. Wood, Angola, Ind., vice president; G. W. Spohn, Elkhart, secretary; J. A. Weitz, Montpelier, O., treasurer. Kalamazoo, Mich., was chosen as the scene of the winter meeting which will be held in January. Kalamazoo was selected over Battle Creek, although both cities made strong bids for the honor. Michigan was invited to the winter meeting, as each state takes the meetings in its turn. It was Indiana's opportunity to have a physician elected president and Dr. McCaskey was chosen to head the association for the coming year. Meetings of the association are held twice each year, but the officers serve one year, the new ones being elected at the summer meetings. Indiana, Ohio and Michigan were represented by 150 physicians, who arrived in the city Tuesday morning and left immediately after the banquet in the evening. While in the city they were the guests of the St. Joseph County Medical Society, the members of which succeeded in landing the annual meeting of the association for this city.

Dr. Vaughn Honored. Victor C. Vaughn, dean of the college of medicine of the University of Michigan, the retiring president, was elected president of the American Medical Society at its recent meeting held in Minneapolis, Minn. This is the highest honor that can be conferred in this country on any physician. The announcement was received with much satisfaction by the members of the Tri-State association as they feel that it was not only an honor to Dr. Vaughn but that the association as well, to have a man elected to this high place of honor.

Many of the physicians who attended the meeting here and many who were unable to attend received their instruction from Dr. Vaughn at Michigan University. Dr. G. W. Spohn, secretary of the association, in speaking of the election of Dr. Vaughn, said: "I was certainly glad that the highest honor possible was given to Dr. Vaughn. He deserves it."

The meeting opened Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock with Dr. John L. Porter of Chicago in charge of the first talk on the program. His address was in the nature of a clinic on the subject, "Orthopedic Surgery". He was assisted by Dr. Charles L. Stoltz of this city. By this means the younger members of the association were benefited to a great extent as practical cases were brought up by the older physicians. Physicians and surgeons, irrespective of their practices, were very well pleased with the talk.

Paper is Read. Following this discussion a paper on "Intestinal Stasis" was read by Dr. H. H. Martin of Laporte, with Dr. J. C. Fleming of Elkhart as the alternate. Those who took part in the discussion were Drs. C. W. Green, Dowagiac; A. F. Kingsley, Battle Creek; C. M. Harpster, Toledo, and E. E. Morgan, Fort Wayne.

"The Surgical Treatment of Cleft Palate" was discussed by Dr. J. H. Jacobson of Toledo and he was assisted by Dr. Miles F. Porter of Fort Wayne. The discussants were I. M. Rosenthal, Fort Wayne; A. H. Rockwell, Kalamazoo; C. F. Tenny, Toledo, and J. P. Case of Battle Creek.

After this session the physicians adjourned and were the guests of the various members of the St. Joseph County Medical Society at dinner. The out of town guests at the session were taken to the homes of the local members or to the various restaurants.

The afternoon session opened promptly at 1:30 o'clock with a discussion of "Gynecology and Nervousness" by Dr. J. H. Carstens of Detroit. The latter part of Dr. Carstens' talk was a clinic on cancer of the stomach and was one of the most interesting of the meeting. The subject was discussed by Drs. S. Young, Kalamazoo; I. J. Becknell, Goshen; W. F. Howat, Hammond, and A. R. Wyatt, Lagrange.

Dr. Angus McLean of Detroit talked on "Ulcer and Carcinoma of the Hollow Viscera of the Upper Abdomen: Symptoms, Medical and Surgical Treatment". He was assisted by Drs. F. Shilleto, Kalamazoo; J. C. Kellar, Toledo; P. M. Hickey, Detroit, and B. F. Kuhn, Elkhart.

"The Prognosis in Hysteria" was discussed by Dr. Carl D. Camp of Ann Arbor, Mich. Dr. Camp spoke at length on this subject and gave a very clear talk on it. This subject is one that is a very common one between physicians and was very well received.

Dr. C. N. Smith was unable to talk on the subject, "The Diagnosis of Ectopic Pregnancy".

Is a Dead Issue. Dr. Frederick Friedmann's serum failed to come under consideration by the physicians at the meetings. When asked why nothing was said concerning the cure for tuberculosis, one of the physicians said, "That question is already settled in the minds of most doctors and has become a dead issue."

Dr. H. D. Wood of Angola, Ind., one of the oldest physicians present, is the only surviving charter member of the Tri-State Medical Association. Dr. Wood has attended every annual meeting of the organization and has missed very few of the winter meetings.

Members of the association were banqueted at six o'clock in the red room of the Oliver hotel by the St. Joseph County Medical Society. After the banquet, an entertainment was provided by the Orpheum quartet, composed of Wellington Dice, Aaron Smith, Roscoe Rhinebaugh and George Norse.

NATTY MAN FAILS TO IMPRESS JURY WOMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Unusually smart habiliments and an ingratiating manner failed to win for Asst. Dist. Atty. Maxwell McNutt in his appeal to the jury of women which tried Mrs. Bertha J. William on an extortion charge. After deliberating one hour and 55 minutes, the jury, the first in history to hear a felony case, brought in a verdict of acquittal. "Of course, she said she did what she did, but we didn't think when she said she did it she meant she had meant to do it," said one of the jury women. Hence Mrs. William (attired in a fetching Milan hat and a neat white serge tailored suit, much scrutinized by the jury women, kissed her benefactors.

GETS BLESSING INSTEAD OF CELL

"Belle of Hester Street's" Parents Relent and Give Bride Chain They Said She Stole.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Mrs. Abraham Baruch, "the Belle of Hester street," who was married by an alderman in the city hall at noon Tuesday and arrested a few hours later in her bridal flat at 127 Eldridge st., was arraigned before Magistrate Freschi in Essex Market court. The arrest was made on the charge of her mother, Mrs. Mollie Mayo, 89 Hester st., who said her daughter opened the family trunk and took a string of Turkish, Bulgarian and Spanish coins valued at $130. Her father, Chaim Mayo, had been angered because "Becky" had married the tinsmith Baruch.

"How do you plead?" the magistrate asked the bride. Her father and mother broke through the crowd waiving the jangling coins in question. Mayo caught his daughter by the arm and reached for his son-in-law.

"They are both guilty of marriage and here is their blessing!" cried Becky's father. Then Mayo placed the necklace of coins about his daughter's neck and kissed her. Baruch acknowledged his father-in-law's blessing and the party left the court room almost before Magistrate Freschi could countersign the grand larceny complaint as "with-drawn."

PERFUMED PIGGIE SLEEPS WITH MATRON

His Skin Washed and Combed Daily—Eats From a Silver Spoon.

DENVER, Colo., July 9.—Mrs. Whitney Newton, a well known Denver society matron, has a new pet—a baby pig.

Young Robert Newton brought home the shoat a few evenings ago. He was much entertained by the antics of the animal and all went well until he wished to attend a dance. A maid cared for it that evening until midnight, when she turned it over to her mistress.

Mrs. Newton took the shoat into her arms and tried to make it comfortable, but without success. Finally she got a fine piece of hem-stitched linen, embroidered with blue flowers, wrapped it gently about the pig, then laid him cautiously upon the downy pillow beside her own.

Piggie gave a satisfied little squeak, doubled up his feet and went off to sleep happy. The cunning act won Mrs. Newton's heart. His white skin is washed and combed and perfumed and he sleeps in a downy bed every night beside his mistress. He also eats from a silver spoon.

Baby sleeps and grows while mamma rests if Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is given. It's the greatest baby medicine ever offered loving mothers. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Coonley Drug Store. Adv.
